

The Great Austerity Debate!

An interactive play imagining
the future beyond austerity

Is austerity inevitable?

Is it fair?

Are there alternatives?

The Great Austerity Debate is an interactive play where audiences get to change the story and influence the future. Come along and join in!

Performances free except where noted. Booking essential to avoid disappointment.

For more information come to Menagerie website:
www.menagerie.uk.com/theideasstage/news

Friday 28th October, 7pm.

Cambridge Festival of Ideas

St Paul's Church, Cambridge.

Booking: www.festivalofideas.cam.ac.uk/events/great-austerity-debate

Saturday 29th October, 7pm.

Priory Centre, Great Yarmouth Community Trust.

Free for individuals. £4 for organisations.

Booking: Sue Smithurst 01493 743000

Tuesday 1st November, 7pm.

Literary Institute, Ireshopeburn.

£3/£1 unwaged, students, U18s

Booking: Steve Robson 07731 485791

Wednesday 2nd November, 4pm.

University of Wolverhampton.

Thursday 3rd November, 5.30pm.

Julian Study Centre, UEA, Norwich.

Booking: Steve Waters - steven.waters@uea.ac.uk

Friday 4th November, 7pm.

Unite the Union, London and Eastern Regional Office.

33-37 Moreland St, London EC1V 8BB

Booking: Liane Groves - liane.groves@unitetheunion.org