SUBMIT YOUR ONE PAGE PLAY NOW!

Menagerie is now accepting entries for the One Page Play Competition which will take place at this year's Hotbed, Cambridge's new writing festival.

All entries will be read and the best will be performed by actors throughout the Hotbed weekend at Cambridge Junction. We are looking for 12 scripts. Audience members will vote on the best play out of those presented and the winner will receive £100 to donate to a charity of their choice. This is a fantastic opportunity for everyone to put their words to the test and get the chance to see their work come to life in a professional theatrical arena.

The one page plays can be about ANY subject from current politics to soap opera relationships. The possibilities are endless. The only RULES are:

- 1 Page of A4 only (10-12 point text)
- No more than 8 actors featured in the play
- The duration should be no longer than 4 minutes

All we need now is some creative writing! To enter, just email your one page play to office@menagerie.uk.com before 22nd June 2015.

- Please put ONE PAGE PLAY clearly in the subject line of your email
- Also, please present your play as an attachment. Your attachment needs to be named with THE TITLE OF YOUR PLAY and YOUR NAME

Please note the One Page Play Competition also has a Young Writers category for under 16s- please specify if you belong to this category.

Hotbed 2015: Testing, Testing! will feature high-quality drama including: world premieres from major career writers, guest productions, workshops, readings and the One Page Play Competition.
