

YOUNG WRITERS ONE PAGE PLAY COMPETITION (15 years and under)

HOTBED 2015: Testing, Testing!

Thursday 9 – Sunday 12 July, Cambridge Junction

SUBMIT YOUR ONE PAGE PLAY NOW!

Menagerie is accepting entries for the One Page Play Competition which will take place at this year's Hotbed, Cambridge's new writing theatre festival. As part of our One Page Play Competition, we are looking for submissions from writers aged 15 and under in our Young Writers category.

All entries will be read and the best scripts will be performed by professional actors at the Hotbed weekend at Cambridge Junction. Audience members will vote on the best play out of those presented and a winner will receive £50 to donate to a charity of their choice. This is a fantastic opportunity for budding writers to put their words to the test and get the chance to see their work come to life in a professional theatrical arena.

The one page plays can be about ANY subject from current politics to soap opera relationships. The possibilities are endless. The only RULES are:

- 1 Page of A4 only (10-12 point text)
- No more than 8 actors featured in the play
- The duration should be no longer than 4 minutes

All we need now is some creative writing! To enter, just email your one page play to office@menagerie.uk.com before 22nd June 2015.

- Please put YOUNG WRITERS ONE PAGE PLAY clearly in the subject line of your email
- Also, please present your play as an attachment. Your attachment needs to be named with THE TITLE OF YOUR PLAY and YOUR NAME

Hotbed 2015: Testing, Testing! will feature high-quality drama including: world premieres from major career writers, guest productions, workshops, readings and the One Page Play Competition.

A full list of events will be announced in June. For more information, go to: www.menagerietheatre.co.uk.
